

Get Specific With God

Our greatest desire is to please God, and to honor Him with all of our life and we pray that he will enable us to be more clearly identified as His because of what we learn, what we apply, and how we commit ourselves to Him Today.

Faith that you are hoping for needs to be specific, well defined, clearly delineated so that you can exercise not only what you want, but that God can move through your life. You must then be consumed by your desire through walking with God. It's only the people that are Red Hot with God's desires that accomplish great things. God wants to bless You through your Dreams and Desires that he has given you. You need a Dream that is too big for you to accomplish by yourself. You need a Dream that is worthy of God being at work in your life, bringing about supernatural things to cause that to come to place in your life.

Pray until you receive the legal document, the Word from God that speaks to you through the Bible, other people, your circumstances, wise counselors, or any combination.

When God tells you that it's yours, it doesn't matter what other people say, you need only to claim it. God wants you to develop eyes so that you see it as he sees it. God wants you to develop the Faith to believe it before it happens, so that when it happens you know that He did it, so that you can give Him all the glory.

The true reality of life is not physical. That which is impossible with us, is not impossible with God. When you act on the revealed will and word of God, then the sign of God follows you confirming that you are doing what He says. Faith is the reality of God waiting to be claimed.

Lord, I want you to forgive me for my sin that nailed Jesus to the cross. I want you to forgive me for my rebellion, and my selfishness, and my vanity, and my greed, and my pride, and my unkind remarks, and my lack of love, compassion, and sensitivity toward others as well as toward you. Lord, I want you to work in my life. Lord, I want to begin my relationship with you today. Lord, I have been leaving you out of so many areas of my life. Lord, I renew my commitment to you today. Lord, I want everything that you have for me, so please open my heart and my life to you today so that I can become specific to your desires in order that I can become consumed about that which you want to bring about. Lord please take this filth out of my mind, out of my mouth. Lord, I want you to control what my eyes see, what my ears hear, and what my mouth speaks. Great people step out of their fears and into the wall of Faith, and the glory of God will surround your life because you are Acting upon their faith. Lord, consume me with what you want to do in my life. Give me a passion for it, Lord. I want to be Red Hot for your Will so that you will be glorified in and through my life.

A personal relationship with God and Jesus Christ is the key to unlocking my personal Achievements.
